Committee Procedures

Meetings (Dates, Times, Location)

- The SAC has a standing meeting time scheduled on Thursdays from 8:30 - 10:00 AM. On occasion the length of the meeting time may be extended if required to meet deadlines. Elected members should have a schedule that allows for regular attendance at meetings on Thursday mornings at the designated time.
- Agenda items for each meeting are determined by the Chair/Co-Chair. These agenda items are identified from the following sources:
  - Committee members
  - SGA requests or resolutions.
  - Faculty Senate Leadership (President, Vice President, Executive Council..) requests.
  - Administration requests
- Agenda item priorities are determined by the committee during the May meeting and regularly during the 'Other Business' end of meeting discussion.
- It is the responsibility of the SAC Chair to notify all members of the specific dates, times, and locations of committee meetings.
- Throughout the academic year, the SAC may also spend meeting time discussing general issues of relevance to the work or functioning of the committee.

Materials

Meeting materials will be sent to the committee from the Chair/Co-Chair or the Faculty Senate Office the Friday before each meeting (generally). Members are expected to review meeting materials prior to the meeting. Committee members are also welcome to share materials prior to meetings to inform discussions.

Voting Rights

The Undergraduate and Graduate Student representatives on the Student Affairs Committee have equal voting rights to all other elected members of the Committee.

Definitions of Voting Terms

Yes: A "Yes" vote is a determination by a voting-eligible committee member that an action under review is supported.

No: A "No" vote is a determination by a voting-eligible committee member that an action under review is not supported. In such cases, committee members voting "No" are encouraged to offer reason(s) for the "No" vote to be included in the meeting minutes.

Abstain: An abstention occurs when a voting-eligible committee member, who has the opportunity to vote, makes an active choice to vote neither "Yes" nor "No". As active choice, abstention differs from not voting due to absence. The option to abstain is discouraged, but may be an appropriate option in a small number of circumstances where a voting-eligible faculty member has personal or professional reasons that interfere with making a fair and unbiased determination. It is helpful to specify the reason(s) for an abstention but not expected.

Recusal: A recusal is recorded when a SAC member determines it would be inappropriate for them to vote on the matter at hand. This is entirely self-enforcing.

Absent: If a voting-eligible SAC member is not in attendance at a meeting and does not actively submit a proxy vote (i.e., Yes, No, Abstain) by email to the Chair, the available vote will not be recorded in the vote tally.

- When the review process is completed each semester, the votes and corresponding narrative will be submitted to the Office of the Provost.

A motion is to pass the Student Affairs Committee if the majority of the quorum in attendance supports the measure.

Units Selecting Members to Join the SAC

- When a vacancy occurs within in unit for an opening on the SAC, the Faculty Senate Office notifies the unit, which then holds an election for a faculty member to represent them on SAC.

Continuous Improvement & Reporting

- Throughout the year the SAC Chair / Co-Chair will maintain a log of issues and ideas pertaining to: future agenda items, operational process improvements, conduct of meeting practice and so on.
- At the end of the spring semester, the SAC Chair / Co-Chair will prepare a summary report to be submitted to the Faculty Senate and the Office of the Provost describing the work of the committee during the academic terms and key issues and ideas related to ongoing improvement.
- At least once annually, before May 15th of each academic term the SAC should review its operating procedures, propose specific changes if needed, and submit to the Senate Executive Council for review and approval.

First approved by the Student Affairs Committee: (INSERT DATE HERE)

The committee will review this document and offer feedback throughout the semester. Once the final draft is created the SAC will vote to adopt the operating & voting procedures.
