Submission to ScholarWorks

The student will be asked to submit their thesis to the ScholarWorks database, a public research archive that is the University of Vermont's preferred vehicle for sharing faculty and student research. We are aware that sometimes the publication of student research may compromise the confidentiality of as-yet unpublished faculty research. In light of this and related considerations, please check the appropriate statement below and sign:

_____ The student has my permission to post the thesis to ScholarWorks

_____ The student does not have my permission to post the thesis to ScholarWorks (please explain)

_____ The student's work should be embargoed. Please select one of the following:

_____ A one-year embargo. If you check this, the Honors College will automatically embargo the student's thesis for one year from the date of submission.

_____ A two-year embargo. If you check this, the Honors College will automatically embargo the student's thesis for two years from the date of submission.

_____ Other. If you would like the thesis to be embargoed for longer than one year please contact our office at honors.college@uvm.edu to specify your preferred length of embargo. While embargoed a student's thesis will not be available for viewing or download, however, the student's thesis title, abstract, and name of author will be available. If you and/or the student have concerns about this, we advise you to not post the thesis to ScholarWorks.
