Natural Resources Management Academy

July 13-15, 2018

Are you a student entering 7th-12th grade in the Fall who is interested in the environment and ready to explore, in depth, your passion for Vermont's natural resources?

If you answered yes to this question, then you should attend the 11th annual Natural Resources Management Academy. Come ready to explore natural resources management, and share a weekend with other high school students from around Vermont who have the same interests.

The Natural Resources Management Academy has been developed for individuals just like you! The Academy is a weekend full of fantastic learning opportunities aimed at understanding Vermont's forests, wildlife, soils and water ecosystems. All programs will be hands-on and mostly outdoors.

Space is limited — sign up now!
