NOTE A.—The long-dotted horizontal lines which divide the space intended for numbers on this Schedule are intended to separate the figures written in one column from those written in another, so that the figures may be easily read from each other, and the Examiner should be careful that the figures are written within the small squares so formed in the right-hand margin spaces.

NOTE B: Indicate an affirmative entry by a slanting line (thus /) in one of the three columns 2, 3; and 4, according as the fact is in the case of each farm:
column 2, if the occupier is the owner of the farm; in column 3, if he is the tenant of a fixed money rental; in column 4, if he conducts a factory or workshop on the farm; in column 5, if he is the owner of a dwelling house.

NOTE C.—Examiners will observe that there are 100 questions relating to each farm, which are arranged in four successive divisions of equal breadth.
