A 30-hour National Consortium for Teaching about Asia Seminar
Organized by the Asian Studies Outreach Program in the College of Education and Social Services at the University of Vermont
Administered by the Five College Center for East Asian Studies

Hosted by the Asian Studies Outreach Program in Burlington, Vermont
Saturdays beginning JANUARY 10, 2015

Overview
This seminar provides teachers with content and resources to more effectively teach about China, Japan, and Korea. Western New York professors and other Asia scholars present in-depth information and materials on East Asian history, geography, religion, literature, language, music and art.

Who can participate?
The seminar is open to 20 teachers in Vermont who want to more effectively incorporate East Asia into their curriculum. Elementary and secondary teachers of Social Studies, English, Music, Art, LOTE, librarians and administrators are encouraged to apply.

Teachers receive
➢ Quality instruction about Asia from leading experts in the field
➢ $200 in textbooks and primary source materials
➢ $100 stipend upon completion of seminar requirements
➢ One-year subscription to Education about Asia

Participant responsibilities
➢ Attend 29 hours of classes during the seminar
➢ Complete a 1-hour webinar assignment prior to the start of the seminar
➢ Create a written implementation plan showing how information and resources from the seminar will be used in your classes
➢ Implement your plan in the 2015-2016 school year
