Deadline to Apply: December 20, 2014

The Institute on Japan and its Cultures is a 3-credit study abroad program for Vermont educators in Japan. The overseas program provides Vermont educators with the opportunity to study various aspects of Japan culture, including economic development, education, and women's social status in Japan. Program fee covers international and domestic transportation, field trips, housing and meals.

Cost: Program Fee of $1,950 plus 3 UVM summer credits/comprehensive fees.
Travel Dates: June 28 to July 17, 2015 (tentative)
Japan Locations: Kyoto, Nara, Hiroshima, Miyajima, and Okayama

For general guidelines and applications for the Institute on Japan and Its Cultures, or to find out about resources and workshops for teaching about Asia in K-12 classrooms, contact the Asian Studies Outreach Program by emailing JDrouin@uvm.edu or visiting www.uvm.edu/~outreach.